

Letters From the Trail

Bringing pioneer history and literature into your classroom

Enjoy a visit from “Mrs. Annabelle Smith” of the Oregon Trail, who will delight your students with stories from the trail and deliver 20 handwritten letters from boys and girls on the westward migration. Use the provided curriculum to engage your students with language conventions of the time, reading and drawing conclusions, as well as presenting in front of the class.

Now Booking!

Cost: $50 per classroom

Visit www.SingingCreekCenter.org
for more information

We are a 501 c(3) non profit organization.

541-968-1986

